BYLAWS

Ministers' Records

1. All ministers shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the conference.

2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers be included in the Minutes.
(These are listed by districts.)

4. Each church shall mail quarterly reports to the conference office within ten days after the close of each month. In addition, each church shall mail semi-annual reports to the conference office by the tenth of July and the tenth of January; and shall mail an annual report to the conference office by January 10th. These reports shall be on forms made available for purchase from the conference office.

Voting for Pastor

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the general conference. The vote shall be taken on the last Sunday of April or the first Sunday of May preceding the Quadrennial Conference. When a vote for pastor is taken, the actual vote totals are to be reported to the local church and to the conference superintendent within twenty-four hours.

2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the MANUAL of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Work of the Stationing Committee

1. The Stationing Committee shall deliberate on matters related to ministerial assignments and shall have ample time for interviews with lay delegates and ministers before reaching a final decision.

2. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the stationing committee for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

3. Ministers shall be informed of their appointment during consultation with the stationing committee. If an adjustment has to be made, the committee shall grant the minister another consultation.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church delegate(s) makes a request to the stationing committee contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the committee. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

5. No person, other than duly elected delegates, shall consult with the stationing committee concerning pastoral assignments, unless the pastor and delegates involved are invited to attend the meeting.

6. The stationing committee report shall be read at the close of the quadrennial conference session.

Ministerial Candidates - Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the conference shall be made to the conference superintendent.

2. All candidates for the ministry shall have been a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church a minimum of Six (6) months before the convening of the conference. This requirement shall not apply to ministers transferring from another conference.

3. All candidates shall satisfy the Committee on Examination that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

4. The Committee on Examination shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the conference for license, who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character.

5. The committee on examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine, reputation, and credit rating.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses offered at Holmes College of the Bible, Southwestern Bible College, Emmanuel College, The School of Christian Ministries at Emmanuel College, or a course of study approved by the General Conference. These studies may be in residence or by correspondence.

7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis.

Deeds

1. No property shall be accepted in the conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

Local Church Official Boards

1. Eligibility for election and tenure of service on the church board will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the official board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

1. All resolutions offered from the floor of the conference shall bear signatures equal to the number of the resolutions committee.

Finances--Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the conference budget by sending to the conference office monthly,the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the quadrennial conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, the conference superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the conference shall support the general program of the denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the conference office to be appropriately forwarded to the general church treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the conference treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subjected to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL. The conference superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent (1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for conference superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing superannuation benefits for the year(s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. The conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the conference office by the tenth of the month.

7. Due to the high cost of living and the need to maintain adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the consensus that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job; it becomes mandatory that:

a. In keeping with the general conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the conference board will consider housing and utilities (Electricity, fuel, water, telephone) for officials. Each local church shall consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salaries of ministers and officials.

b. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting housing and utilities from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

c. The church shall review the pastor's salary semiannually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, and service of a pastor. Special consideration should be given where growth has resulted from the services and efforts of the pastor.

d. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary during the annual conference session. In order to eliminate confusion regarding the salaries and benefits for the pastors during the week of conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of pastoral change, the church which the pastor is leaving will pay his salary and benefits through the week of the annual conference.

e. Churches are now required by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL to pay the pastor's social security tax.

f. The superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

g. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. The conference treasurer shall pay the premiums for the superintendent. The Christian Education Department shall pay the premiums for the Christian education director and the Evangelism Department shall pay the premiums for the evangelism director. These stated departments shall also pay the social security tax for said personnel.

h. In keeping with the general conference minutes, the conference board shall review and adjust the salary of the superintendent and other personnel employed by the conference.

8. Evangelists' Compensation:

a. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less than the minimum salaries of pastors per week plus travel.

b. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensating evangelists.

c. If a church cancels a revival for a full-time evangelist without giving at least thirty days' notice, that church shall pay the evangelist.

9. The rate of twenty-five cents ($.25) per mile shall be paid for all official travel. This is subject to adjustment according to the rate adopted by GBA, GEB, or General Conference.

10. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses of retired ministers.

11. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by conference personnel shall be included in the conference treasurer's report.

Vacations

1. The Conference Superintendent shall be given a three weeks' vacation with pay each year. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion, and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

2. Pastors should receive vacation with pay according tothe following schedule which is based upon his total years in the pastorate (not the years at his current pastorate).

One to ten years .....two weeks
Eleven years and up.....three weeks

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct not more than three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his department.

Local Church--Ministerial Relations

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor.

2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not frequently visit to the extent that it causes confusion and creates a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.

3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect or retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

4. Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the imcoming pastor.

Use of Conference Facilities

1. Any approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall be responsible for any and all breakage of and damage to these properties.

Death of A Minister

1. In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the office of the conference superintendent shall contact the district conference secretaries and they shall notify the ministers of the districts. The conference board members will be notified by the conference office.

Conference Planning

1. The Conference Board will serve as the nominating committee for all conference sessions.

2. The Conference Board will set the date for the Christian Worker's Institute and select the speakers for the Institute and the Falcon Camp Meeting.

3. The Conference Board and Auxiliary Department Leaders shall serve as a planning committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

4. The Conference and Camp Meeting shall be separated and conducted at times independent of each other during the year.

SEVENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

North Carolina Conference
Pentecostal Holiness Church
June 16, 1988

The Seventieth-eight Session (since the consolidation with the Fire Baptized Church in 1911) and the Eighth Inspirational Conference of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church met in Falcon, North Carolina on June 16, 1988 with Assistant General Superintendent, Reverend Jesse D. Simmons presiding. The Conference opened at 9:00 a.m. with the singing of the hymn "Amazing Grace" led by Reverend Raymond Potter accompanied by Mrs. Annie Randall at the organ and Mr. Gary Wages at the piano. Conference Superintendent, James D. Leggett presented Reverend J. Doner Lee who led the conference in prayer. Following a season of prayer, Superintendent Leggett recognized the Rev. W. Eddie Morris who expressed appreciation to all who had prayed in his behalf during his recent illness.

Superintendent Leggett presented Dr. Jesse D. Simmons who brought a brief address and then called the conference to order.

Official enrollment was ascertained by enrollment cards from which the following enrollments were taken both clerical and lay.

CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Chairman and members of the Conference:

It has been my privilege to serve as Conference Superintendent for the past year. The Lord has graciously blessed the conference as we have labored together in His harvest, and I am deeply grateful for His grace and guidance throughout the year. He is always more than enough for each and every need. I love the Lord today because He first loved me and gave Himself on Calvary's cross to provide the wonderful plan of salvation by which I am redeemed.

During the year I have had the joy of ministering to many of the churches for various occasions. Most of the Sundays I have preached in one of the churches, and there have been revivals, special meetings, ground breakings, dedications and note burnings. When I visit the churches, I am made to give thanks to the Lord for the dedicated people who serve in the local churches. God has given to us some very consecrated and gifted people to minister to our area.

The work of the conference has included presiding at the various board meetings, meetings with ministers and lay leadership, leading the district meetings, as well as the conference activities such as Christian Workers Institute and Campmeeting.

The Lord has given to this conference a board of dedicated men and they have been a constant source of help in directing the affairs of the conference. He has also given to us a fine staff of help in the office and the secretaries are such a vital part of the ministry of this conference. Let me express my appreciation to all of them and especially to my secretary, Mrs. Delores Reynolds.

During the past year I have also served in various areas of the General Church where I have endeavored to make a contribution and represent this conference. I have served as chairman of the Falcon Children's Home Board, secretary of the Holmes Board of Trustees, a member of the Emmanuel College Board, a member of the GBA and the General Institutions Board.

The State Of The Conference

The Lord has given us a good year of growth; in fact, statistics will show that it has been the best year of the quadrennium. Each department of the church has showed an increase and our increase in church membership is the best yet.

The condition of the conference is one of growth and the statistics of each department will show the gains for the year. For the first time in a number of years we are showing an increase in Sunday School enrollment. This is a good sign, and I trust that it means our Sunday Schools will continue to grow to the extent that they will have an impact on a greater increase in church growth.

	1987	1988	Gain
Church Membership	17,784	18,241	457
S. S. Enrollment	21,592	21,621	29
S. S. Average Attendance	11,668	11,758	90
Youth Ministries	10,549	10,568	19
Women's Ministries	3,825	3,909	84

This growth is a result of prayer and revival. All of us are thankful for the good reports of revival in the conference, and we need to pray that God will continue to send revivals to our churches until every church can report a real move of God's spirit. Our evangelist are doing an excellent work in leading our people to seek God and expect revival.

With each department showing an increase for the year, a word of commendation is in order for the men and women who labor so diligently to build the Kingdom of God.

Rev. D. Chris Thompson serves as our Evangelism Director. He is continually studying and working to lead the conference toward an emphasis on evangelism and the Lord is blessing his efforts. This past year a new church was organized in Havelock and a work started in Knightdale with the "telemarketing program". We plan to organize that church early in 1989.

Rev. Bobby Forehand is doing a good job as Christian Education Director. The programs under his directions are showing an increase; in fact, every program is showing an increase. The Royal Rangers, a ministry for boys, is one of the fastest growing programs of the church and is providing an opportunity to reach boys for Jesus Christ.

Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson continues to lead the Women's Ministries Department forward in its service to the local churches and the conference. We appreciate the good leadership that she provides to the women of the conference.

The Missions Department under the capable leadership of Rev. T. E. Long has reached its highest level of giving during the past year. Our churches are responding to Brother Long's leadership by supporting more and more of our missionaries.

It has been a good year of the Men's Fellowship as Mr. Joe Strickland has challenged the men of the conference to organize and to become involved in the work of the local church ministry.

Brother Strickland is making a real contribution to our conference and General Church through the Men's Fellowship.

Building and Grounds

During the past year a new boys dorm was completed. This building will provide housing for the boys during youth camp. It will also provide extra space during Institute and Campmeeting as well as dorm space for Royal Ranger functions.

Since this building has been completed, we can now renovate the dorm rooms in the cafeteria building so that we can have nice rooms for special events on the conference grounds. These rooms are projected to be completed by Christian Worker's Institute of 1989.

The Strickland House has been beautified with vinyl siding which will provide protection for it in the years to come. It will also save us the expense of painting it every few years.

Plans For The Future

We are on the threshold of the last decade of the twentieth century. God is doing something wonderful in the Pentecostal Holiness Church to prepare us for some great years of harvest should He tarry. This could well be the best ten years of growth in our history. Let's us pray and work that it will be a time of real growth.

The emphasis on Target 2000 has given the denomination a common goal for ministry through the year 2000. It is a very ambitious goal, but we can achieve it through prayer, cooperation and witnessing. The Lord will help us if we will prayerfully go forth into the harvest fields.

As a conference we have adopted a goal of 5% per year increase in each department to the year 2000. If we increase in church membership by 5% per year, we will have our 31,000 church members at the end of the century. This is almost as many members as we have presently in the entire state.

We will need to organize at least three new churches per year and have a net gain of two per year. New churches provide the most new growth in a denomination.

Each local church will need to set its own goals for growth during this progressive period. A good goal for the local church would be a 10% increase in each department.

Let us join together in prayer and plan to make these years the most fruitful years of our labors. It may well be that God will bless us to exceed our goals. It would be a wonderful thing to even double during this decade.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT
June 16, 1988

Jesus said, "I am going to my Father's house to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going."

Today we pause to honor four of our fellow-servants who not only knew the way and helped many others to find that way, but have traveled it themselves all the way to heaven. And, now they are in the presence of our Lord forever.

Reverend James Rufus Evans

Reverend James Evans was born March 5, 1916 to Tom and Ava Evans of Johnston County, North Carolina. On November 23, 1934 he was married to Miss Madrid Crumpler. The Lord blessed them with one son, Jimmy Wayne, and Six daughters, Delorese, Rudean, Linda, Marie, Janie, and Joanna.

In April of 1947 Brother James gave his heart to Jesus and soon afterwards answered the call to preach the Gospel. He testified that he had felt some awareness of this call at the age of twelve. In 1949 he received his local Minister's License in the Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church and was ordained in 1952. In 1954 he joined the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

During the twenty-two years of his ministry he pastored the following churches: Lamm's Grove, Niagara, Warsaw, Calypso, Micro, Clayton, and Airboro. Brother James retired in 1976 because of physical problems. After retirement he preached and worked in the kingdom as best he could.

Early in the morning of September 30, 1987, God called and James Evans went to be with the Lord. We thank God for the fruit of his labors which we all enjoy today.

Reverend James Russell Fields

Russell Fields was born into the home of Floyd A. and Lillie A. Fields on April 13, 1912 near Mount Olive, North Carolina. As a child, he and his family attended the Jones Grove Church and later the Thunder Swamp Church. As a teenager he received Jesus Christ as his Saviour and began serving Him. On November 15, 1936 he married Sarah Sasser and God gave them a son, Derryl.

In 1967, Brother Fields was licensed to preach in the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. He pastored the Tyndall Grove Church and the Calypso Church. In 1979 he retired but continued to tell about Jesus. He taught a Sunday School class for the last ten years at the Tabernacle Pentecostal Holiness Church in Goldsboro. On June 25, 1987, God again called Brother Fields, but this time the call was to go home. He is there with the Lord today.

Praise God for the faithfulness of this good man.

Reverend Richard Joseph Sasser

On September 19, 1900 in LaGrange, North Carolina, Richard Joseph Sasser was born into the home of Matthew Joseph and Florence Rollins Sasser. He and his family moved to Mount Olive and he grew up in the Thunder Swamp Pentecostal Holiness Church.

On February 22, 1920 Richard married Sally Valerie Lewis. God blessed their home with three sons, Franklin, Joe, and Leon, and three daughters, Minnie, Catherine, and Blanche.

Richard and Sally were saved soon after their wedding and in 1927, Brother Richard joined the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. He served as pastor of the following: Shines Mission, Wallace, Moore's Chapel, Vanceboro, Bizzell Grove, and Holly Hill. Brother Sasser retired in 1968 after forty-one years in the ministry. During his ministry, Brother Sasser led his churches in buying land, buildings, and in the building of churches and parsonages. On September 24, 1987, his Master and Lord invited him home and his soul was made like the chariots of God's willing people.

He's with the Lord today, already rejoined with his beloved Sally. We all love him and are looking forward to seeing him again soon.

Reverend James Albert Taylor

On September 16, 1912, James Albert Taylor was born into the home of Jim and Mattie Taylor of Wilson County, North Carolina. In 1933 he was married to Miss Mamie Worrell and God gave them eleven children.

He answered the call to preach at the age of nineteen, preaching in cottage prayer meetings, church buildings, and brush arbors.

In 1947, he joined the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. He served as pastor of the following churches: Weldon, Hobgood, Caraleigh, Middlesex, Thompson Chapel, and Friendship in Wilson. His ministry, no doubt, brought about the planting of several church. In 1976 he retired from the active pastorate and on Saturday morning June 20, 1987, his Lord called him home. That is where he is now and will always be; with Jesus. He left a trail for us to follow and we know it is right because it is in the footsteps of the Lord. Thank God for his ministry and his life.

Please stand for a few moments of silence as we remember these great servants of the Lord, after which Reverend Jesse Simmons, our presiding officer, will lead us in prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
William M. Wooten

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Today, we pause to express appreciation to our Sisters and Brothers for a job well done. They have labored faithfully at thei calling, and today they exchange the heavy robe of responsibilit they have born for these many years, for a lighter robe o responsibility.

They have not forsaken the call to minister; but are continuin in a new vein, sometimes at a greater pace than before. They hav now become available to fill pulpits for other pastors while they g aside for rest. They conduct revivals, preach homecomings, conduc weddings and funerals much as they have done throughout thei careers.

RETIRED? NEVER! They have only shifted to a lighte responsibility. They will not retire until they hear that fina call to come up higher. Lest we should forget these who hav labored so faithfully, remember that if the Lord should tarry, yo and I too will stand where these stand. So let us be sure to cal on them for those occasions in which we can use their expertise i assisting us bear our heavy robes of responsibilities.

Reverend Sam L. Whichard

Sam L Whichard was licensed to preach in 1952 and was ordaine as a minister in 1954. In reality, he began to fulfill the cal upon his life before receiving his license. He worked in his loca church at Williamston serving in various capacities, preachin revivals, and was instrumental in the organization of th Robersonville church.

His pastorates include Jamesville, Robersonville, Harker's Island, St. Paul in Greenville where he led the first-ever "Inter-Faith Spiritual Retreat in the Pentecostal Holiness Churc with some two thousand people in attendance. Other churche pastored were Wilmington First, Lumberton First, Wilson First, Mt Carmel, Whiteville, and the Ebenezer Church in Nash County.

Throughout his pastorates, Rev. Whichard was innovative wit many ideas that have continued to enhance the influence of th Pentecostal Holiness Church through the years. He was instrumenta in initiating the "Pastoral Intern Program" which Emmanuel Colleg and Homes College of the Bible are using today. He wrote a boo "500-Plus Ideas for Ministers and Laymen' which adorn the librarie of ministers and churches across the Pentecostal Holiness Church. Through his pastorates he led in twelve building programs an remodeling projects; purchased over thirty acres of land and serve on the Superannuate and Stewardship and Development Boards for th General Church. He served on the North Carolina Conference Boar for six years.

These accomplishments come as no surprise, as Brother Whichard mes from a family which has produced some thirteen ministers of e Gospel. His oldest grandson has also been called into the nistry.

Today as your fellow ministers we congratulate you for a job ll done. May the remainder of your service in this life for the ster be the greatest yet.

REVEREND VERNON CLARK

Brother Clark joined the South Carolina Conference in 1944, and 1946 transferred to the North Carolina Conference. He pastored ithfully a number of churches. They are Fuquay, Goshen, Saint tthew, Shiloh (Raleigh District), Harkers Island, Thunder Swamp, otland Neck, Williamston, Lumberton, Pikes Crossroads, New Bern rst and Peniel.

God richly blessed Brother Clark in each of his pastorates with owth, and many souls were won to the kingdom of God. With the ll of God still burning in his heart, he is at present on staff at e Lumberton First Church, serving as visitation pastor to the derly, and shut-ins. Almost every Sunday finds him filling a lpit for one of our ministers.

God gave Brother Clark a duel calling. He served for many years the manager of the kitchen for Campmeeting, Christian Workers stitute, and Falcon Youth Camps. Where ever Brother Clark stored he was always a great advocate of missions. Many of the urches under his capable leadership, were leaders in missions ving. His brother Wiley, has pastored, served as C.E. Director of e North Carolina Conference, and as Sunday School Director and E. Director of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. Currently he is rector of the Falcon Children's Home. Brother Vernon has a son, nneth in the ministry and his daughter is married to a minister. r appreciation to Brother Clark cannot be expressed in words for s faithfulness.

REVEREND REATHA CLARK

Sister Reatha Clark joined the Florida Conference in 1945, and ansferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1949. Through the ars, she has served faithfully by her husband's side in each of s pastorates, filling in, assisting, and encouraging her husband they worked together as a team. She also worked along beside her sband as he managed the dining hall for the various Conference nctions through the years. We express our deep appreciation to u, Sister Clark, for your stedfastness, and encouragement.

REVEREND LYNETTE MOSLEY

Sister Lynette Mosley received Missions Workers License in October of 1955. She received her minister's license in 1957, an was assigned to the Black Creek Church. Other churches pastore are: New Hope, Fremont, Vicks Chapel and Thompson Chapel. Siste Mosley feels that the high light of her minister was the six year at Thompson Chapel. While there the church saw spiritual growt along with numerical increase. A new sanctuary was built under he capable leadership.

Sister Mosley served one year as a Evangelist, and was then assigned the Spring Hope Church where she served for seven years She was then assigned the Sims Church for five months, after whic she served again as an Evangelist.

In November of 1986, she was instrumental in the organization o the Riverside Church between Wilson and Rocky Mount. Due to ill health, she had to step down from active ministry in October o 1987.

Though time may have slowed her from the active pace of th Lord's work, she still has that love for doing the will of God Sister Mosley, we express our appreciation for your faithfulness t God and your contribution to the North Carolina Conference.

Reverend Cullen Pender Gurganus was born on March 21, 1920 in Tarboro, NC. He was married on September 16, 1939 to Miss Gladys Irene Jones. Into this union was born two children, Irene Gay, and Cullen Pender II.

Brother Gurganus was granted Mission Workers License on January 8, 1948; he received his Minister's license in July of 1949 and was ordained in June of 1951 in Hopewell, Virginia by Bishop T. A Melton.

His pastorates include, Oak Grove, Broadmoor in the Easter Virginia Conference, National City, Palmdale, Pomona in Souther California; and Ahoskie, Red Springs, Beaufort, and Liberty in th North Carolina Conference. Brother Gurganus served as an evangelis for two year.

Today we express appreciation to Brother Gurganus for his untiring efforts and for his faithfulness to the call of God upo his life.

REVEREND HALLOT M. PARSON

Brother H.M. Parson joined the North Carolina Conference in 952, and was assigned the Goose Creek Church. Through the years he as pastored a number of churches, including Oriental, Spring Creek, alvary, Sneads Ferry, and Bridgeton. He has served the Goose Creek hurch on at least two other assignments. When not pastoring, rother Parson has served as an evangelist.

As fellow minister, we express our appreciation today for our rother's untiring efforts to promote the kingdom of God.

REVEREND GEORGIA OSBORNE

Mrs. Georgia Osborne transferred to the North Carolina onference in 1964 from the South Carolina Conference. She worked n the Lumberton First Church as a Sunday school teacher and rganist until she was assigned the Hope Mills Church. While erving as pastor, she led the church in a building project ncluding relocation. She pastored the Hope Mills Church for four ears.

She was assigned the Abbottsburg Church where under her capable eadership, the church progressed in many areas. Several mprovements were made to the building, including a new heating and ir conditioning unit, new carpet and new pews. While pastoring the bbottsburg Church, she received her ordination. Due to poor ealth,she had to resign the pastorate.

Though she has been slowed in the physical, her love for God and is Word has not deminished. She still feels the burning desire to reach the Word and stands ready to serve in whatever way she may be alled on. As she reflected upon the ministry of her life, she calls the faithfulness and encouragement of her husband, T.L. sborne, as he has stood faithfully by her side.

We appreciate the faithfulness and undying love that Sister sborne has shone in her years of labor. Today she stands ready to ill the pulpit for any pastor who may need her for a service.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

June 18, 1988

Convention Minutes

The 1988 Christian Education Convention opened with "The Presentation of Colors" by the Northwood Temple Royal Rangers Color Guard, led by Mr. Bill Linn, newly appointed Conference Royal Rangers Commander. The Convention was led in the "Pledge to the Flag" and in singing "God Bless America."

Rev. David Wheeler led the convention in the chorus, We Bring a Sacrifice of Praise."

The opening prayer was led by Rev. James Leggett, Conference Superintendent.

Our Conference Christian Education Director, Rev. Bobby Forehand, introduced the Presiding Officer, Rev. Wayne Knight. Rev. Knight serves as a member of the General Christian Education Board and as Christian Education Director for the Western North Carolina Conference. Rev. Knight addressed the Convention with an inspiring devotion.

The Chair was given to Rev. Forehand who introduced to the Convention, the new Royal Ranger Commander for the Conference, Mr. Bill Linn. A special tribute was given to the outgoing Conference Royal Rangers Commander, Rev. Terry Barts. Rev. Barts was presented a plaque giving the years of his service.

The Convention broke to allow those present to attend the various workshops provided. They were as follows:

Rev. Knight presented to Rev. Forehand a plaque from the General Christian Education Department for leading the North Carolina Conference into giving the largest Total Contribution to the General Christian Education Department for 1987.

Rev. Forehand expressed a special appreciation to the Conference Men's Fellowship for their support and for giving a donation of $500.00 to the Royal Ranger Program. Director Forehand asked the Convention for any recommendations they had that would help provide better Conventions in the future. Rev. Forehand announced that there would be rallies held in the Fall of 1988 and that a "new" Christian Education Rally Banner would be awarded to the winning church in each district.

A special thanks was extended to Rev. Terry Whittenton, Convention Photographer, and to Mrs. Westa Barefoot and Mrs. Celia Forehand for handling the Registration for the Convention. A total of 310 were officially registered for the Convention.

A trophy was presented to Mr. Jim Bob Gray from the Greenville First P.H. Church for achieving the honor of being the High Scorer in the Regional Bible Quiz Competition.

National Bible Quiz and Talent Competitions are to be held at Pigeon Forge, Tennessee, August 9,10,11. This was announced to the Convention.

A motion was made by Rev. Roy Bowling to stand in appreciation for our Conference Christian Education Board. The Convention was adjourned.

President Mary Belle Johnson presented the State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries and made presentations of awards and special recognitions. She also explained the packets which were give to each person attending convention. Gifts were presented to district directors. (President's report is included at end of these minutes.)

Rev. Raymond Potter, representing the General Missions Department, spoke briefly about the Mug-a-Month program.

Mrs. Janice Marshburn, a NCWM district director, gave the Memoirs Report which is included at end of these minutes.

In keeping with the emphasis of the convention, the Mt.Carmel Ensemble sang a medley of "Let Them Know" and "I Give You Thanks."

Mrs. Dollie Davenport, General Women's Ministries Vice-President, introduced Rev. Wiley Clark, Superintendent of Falcon Children's Home. He spoke briefly regarding the work at the Children's Home and introduced the program which was presented by the children of Falcon Children Home.

At the conclusion of the children's program, each local W.M. representative came forward to give their contribution to the Falcon Children's Home Project. This gift in the amount of $5,137.26 was presented to Rev. Clark by Mrs. Linda M. Thomas, NCWM secretary-Treasurer. The money received will go toward the Careteria project.

Mrs. Thomas introduced Mr. Harold Queen, a former resident of Falcon Children's Home and current FCH Alumni President. Mr. Quenn gave a very interesting and inspiring account of what Falcon Children's Home means to those who reside there.

Rev. Clark gave a video presentation of Falcon Children's Home.

Following announcements, Mrs. Faye Leggett, General Women's Ministries Board Member, gave the benediction.

The floral arrangement was given in honor of all children at Falcon Children Home.

NCWM PRESIDENT'S REPORT
1987-1988

Personal

I have observed closely the activities, involvements, and accomplishments of local Women's Ministries groups. I praise you for your commitment, your loyalty, and consistency in your service through North Carolina Women's Ministries. Each lady has made her contribution, each one is involved in the state of our Conference Women's Ministries as we come to this 1988 convention. This year marks our forty-fourth convention, and our second year as Women's Ministries.

The past year has been one in which I have traveled, visited, participated, and I have endeavored to make myself available to all of you. Thank you ladies for allowing me to work with you. To some, it was to be a listener; to some, just answer your questions, and to others - to visit and/or speak to your ladies. I have enjoyed every contact made, whether it was an individual need, a phone call or a problem that needed a solution. Together we are growing, together we are witnessing strength in areas where strength is needed. A leader MUST have good followers in order to be a good leader. I appreciate you and your participation in the ministries, promotions, and projects during the past year. You are a very special facet of my life.

I am a Christian, serving and in service unto the Lord of my life daily. I AM HAPPY, and this statement is genuine. I find happiness in my experiences in the Lord, happiness in my life and living, and happiness in my involvement with the ladies of Women's Ministries, especially the women of North Carolina Women's Ministries.

21 received Certificates of Merit (80/85 points)
9 received Certificates of Recognition (70/75 points)

A total of 106 Certificates were awarded for 1987.

Appreciation

This report would not be complete if I failed to recognize our Conference Superintendent, Rev. James Leggett. The NCWM Board is appreciative of the support he has given us. He has shown great interest in the North Carolina Conference Women's Ministries, and for this we express our gratitude. Thank you, Brother Leggett.

NCWM MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

A famous prayer that should be a part or our daily lives reads:

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.
Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
To be understoon as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that wer receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
"The Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi"

This morning we would like to honor a number of our W.M. members who have now received God's promise of life eternal.

Through death they have had the privilege of hearing Christ say, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of the Lord." They have had the excitement of seeing our resurrected Christ face to face. And can you imagine the thrill Jesus must have felt when He knew it was finally time to say "Come home, my child. Your trials and sufferings are over."

He knew each by their name and called them one by one.

These ladies have not left us forever. "For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Today I comfort you with these words. Remember "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." Let us briefly bow our heads for a moment of silent prayer in honor of these who have served and also as an opportunity to prepare ourselves to meet them one day soon.
